Residents Present-2

Meeting minutes from 4-12-2025 meeting were read by Penny Gehrke and approved by Gilbert Voelker, seconded by Ed Irish.

Approval of Expenditures was approved by Ed Irish, seconded by Gilbert Voelker.

Treasures Report was given by Carol Poehnlein and approved.

Update on Karnar Blue Butterfly by Scott Cullen: Scott Cullen has been in contact with John Wendorski, Assistant Forest Administrator, from Clark County and Rebecca Roth from the DNR. Scott has asked John W. to do a survey of the affected area so we would be able to put up signage, which will be good for 10 yrs. We will not be able to mow that area until fall.

Scott Cullen discussed that we have a few companies contacting us regarding areas to put up cell towers. There is a tower going up on private property in South Foster.

Ed Irish reported roads are good. "No parking" signs need to be put up by the campground. There was a discussion about Fred Gehrke supplying the township with his plow for the town truck to use in smaller areas. A fire sign was put up by Craig Paul's home. There has been a request for speed limit signs for South Foster, Ed will look into this.

Clerk's Report: After a brief discussion a motion was made by Ed Irish and seconded by Gilbert Voelker for a $10.00/hr fee for training between the Clerk and the Treasurer. Penny also discussed the bookkeeping program. The Board of Review will be sometime in July; we are waiting to hear the specific date.

Upcoming Meetings: Scott Cullen mentioned that Crime Stoppers meetings are held on Wednesday. Ed Irish attended the Fire Meeting held in Greenwood on May. Penny Gehrke, Ed Irish and Scott Cullen will be attending the WTA Conference in Eau Claire on May 22nd, 2025. Penny Gehrke will be attending "New Clerk Bootcamp" in Neillsville on June 9th, 2025.

A motion was made for Scott Cullen to sign the fireworks permit for Rock Dam Days; was approved by Ed Irish and seconded by Gilbert Voelker.

Motion to adjourn was made by Ed Irish and seconded by Gilbert Voelker.
